

E

Business

Sunday, February 3, 2008

Business Editor: Greg Junek 596-6280

© 2008, Tyler Courier-Times-Telegraph

business@tylerpaper.com

Sunday Briefing

Greg Junek

BBB Officers

The Better Business Bureau of Central East Texas welcomed its 2008 executive committee and board of directors at its annual meeting Jan. 24.

BBB members vote on executive committee members and directors prior to the annual directors meeting, and the board votes on the results. Officers ascend positions each year to chairmanship.

Board members serve a three-year term, and each year voter members choose new board members for approximately one-third of the seats.

The 2008 Executive Committee consists of: Randy Childress, chairman; Jim Lozier, vice chairman; Dean Cagle, vice chairman; Kay Robinson, president; Felicity Reedy, treasurer; Wade Emerson, secretary; Jon K. Alexander, legal counsel; and Mike Northcut, past chairman.

New board directors are: Kathey Comer, Tyler Area Builders Association; Neal Franklin, Tyler fire chief; Lee Hobbs, Hobbs Pest Control in Mabank; Justin Holt, Capital One; Karen Lewis, Texas Bank & Trust in Tyler; Marjorie Ream, Hospice of East Texas in Tyler; Brad Sims, Southside Bank in Gresham; Scott Six, Star Lite Custom Homes in Gun Barrel City; Patty Steelman, Austin Bank in Jacksonville; and Mike Thomas, Mike Thomas CPA in Tyler.

Business Editor Greg Junek may be reached at 903-596-6280, or by e-mail at business@tylerpaper.com.