

EMORY — Larry Reed, senior vice president of Austin Bank, was honored by the Texas Bankers Association for dedication and commitment to Texas agriculture and the banking industry.

Bruce Bynum, senior vice president at Legend Bank in

REED

Bowie and chairman of the association's Agriculture and Rural Affairs Committee, presented Reed with a plaque last week for his achievements. Reed has shown dedication to the committee for more than 10 years, serving as committee chairman in 2003. He has been with Austin Bank more than 10 years. Prior to that, he spent more than 20 years with Farm Credit Bank.