Austin Bank Names Brenda J. Williams New Senior Project Manager

Austin Bank Vice Chairman Jeff Austin, III recently announced the promotion of Brenda J. Williams to Senior Project Manager, a new position within the bank.

“As the bank continues to grow and new programs are implemented, it is important that someone oversees special projects like our new loan system. Brenda Williams has the both management and organizational skills to handle these projects,” said Austin. “Her experience and leadership abilities will be vital to the success and day-to-day management of our new programs.”

Williams, who has 19 years banking experience, joined Austin Bank 14 years ago. Prior to this new assignment, she was the Loan Documentation Manager of the bank’s Central Loan Documentation Department. While at Austin Bank, she has also worked as a Loan Officer, Loan Review Officer, and Compliance Officer. She was promoted to Senior Vice President in 2004 and assumed responsibility to plan, organize and manage the then newly formed Central Loan Documentation (CLD) department.

Williams is a graduate of LeTourneau University with a B.B.A. and a Certified Regulatory Compliance Manager. She also graduated Magna Cum Laude from Tyler Junior College in 1995 with an A.A.S. in Business Management. Her community volunteer work has included the American Business Woman’s Association, the Circle of 10, Habitat for Humanity and the Boy Scouts of America.

A resident of Noonday, Williams and her husband, Terry, have one son, Jason.

Austin Bank, a community bank with headquarters in Jacksonville, Texas, has $1 billion in assets with 28 offices in nine counties throughout East Texas. More information about the bank can be found at www.austinbank.com.
