Ginny Donnelly Retires from Austin Bank

Austin Bank Vice Chairman Jeff Austin, III has announced that Operations Officer Ginny Donnelly is retiring after eight years with Austin Bank.

"Ginny is a dedicated employee who has worked within the Operations Department as a key member of the bank's support team," commented Austin. "She is highly respected by her coworkers and the entire Austin Bank family."

Ginny Donnelly joined Austin Bank in July 2000 as an Operations Clerk.

Ginny began her banking career in 1985 at a Bank of America branch in Kansas City, Kansas. For the next 10 years, she worked in various positions and locations for Bank of America or their predecessors. Her assignments included Teller, Proof Operator, Teller Supervisor and Cash Vault Manager. Ginny was also a Military Banking Recon Specialist who handled foreign currency accounts. She is a graduate of Midland High School and attended McLennan Community College in Waco.

Upon retirement, Ginny and her husband of 40 years, Terry, plan to travel the West Coast via Amtrak to visit family in Seattle and California. They will also have time to enjoy their lake house on Lake O' the Pines North Shore. Ginny has one daughter, Lori; two sons, David and Wayne; and three step-daughters, Kellie, Sheri and Terri. The couple has 16 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Ginny also plans to devote time to reading and being creative. She is a crafter who enjoys sewing, machine embroidery and machine knitting. In addition, she uses her computer to create calendars and greeting cards.

The Austin Bank Team extends heartfelt appreciation to Ginny for a job well done. A reception honoring Ginny will be held Friday, February 20th, 2 p.m. – 4 p.m. in the Atrium area of the Longview Greggton Austin Bank, 3400 West Marshall. The public is invited to attend.

Austin Bank is a community bank headquartered in Jacksonville, Texas with assets in excess of $1 billion. Bank offices are located in 28 East Texas locations within 18 cities and nine counties. Austin Bank is locally owned and operated by the Austin Family who is celebrating 100 years of serving the banking industry.
